Telling Fortunes.

"Be not among wine bibbers, among riotous ton shall come to poverty, and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags."-Proverbs xxiii: 20, 21, I'll tell you two fortunes, my fine little lad, For you to accept or refuse;

The one of them good, the other one bad ; Now hear them and say which you choose. I see by my gifts, within reach of your hand, A fortune right fair to behold; A house and a hundred good acres of land,

With harvest fields yellow as gold. With apples, russet and red; But all of them sleek and well fed.

I see droves of swallows about the barn door, See the fanning mill whirling so fast ; I see them threshing wheat on the floor-And now the bright picture has past ! And I see rising dismally up in the place Of the beautiful house and the land,
